GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

It is a settled fashion with the New York turf scribes to roast Jockey Fred Littlefield. Whether a horse he rides may chance to win or lose makes but little difference to Littlefield. In either case he seldom escapes harsh criticism. It is a fortunate circumstance for the rider that his employers, A. H. & D. H. Morris and Wyndham Walden, are not of the same opinion as his hostile critics.

The latest attack on Littlefield was with reference to his riding of Filigrane on Tuesday, when Half Time beat him. Mr. Morris has made public a letter he has written Littlefield, in which he states that he has no fault to find with Fred's riding of Filigrane. If he thought the ride was a bad one he would be the first one to say so. In order to show his confidence Mr. Morris hurls defiance at Littlefield's assailants and at the owners of other three-year-olds as well. Here is a proposition he makes: He will race Filigrane against any other three-year-old in the country at equal weights, from one mile to four miles, and will wager $5,000 to $20,000 that Filigrane wins. He also stipulates that as every one believes Littlefield handicaps Filigrane by his riding he will ride Littlefield in the match. The challenge, which is formally issued for him by Mr. Walden, reads as follows:

"I will run Filigrane against any three-year-old in the country, with 120 pounds on each, from one mile to four miles, for $5,000 or $20,000. Littlefield will ride and weather conditions make no difference, the colt being ready to go, rain or shine."

Here is a great chance for the owners of Jean Beraud, Ethelbert and Martimas to bring about a sensational contest.

Two Oaks winners, Rush and May Hempstead, are to meet again this afternoon at Latonia. Rush defeated May Hempstead decisively in the Kentucky Oaks at Louisville, but the track was very heavy and many attributed her success to the condition of the track, she being very much at home in such going, while May Hempstead is not. Their meeting this afternoon has been much canvassed at Cincinnati and yesterday's Enquirer says of the race:

"No race of the meeting will attract more attention in turf circles than the Oaks, one of the richest events of the western turf for three-year-old fillies. More than usual interest attaches to to-morrow's big event from the fact that in it May Hempstead and Rush, the best of their age and sex in the west, will again meet. The defeat of May Hempstead by the McDowell crack in the Kentucky Oaks, and the brilliant showing made by the famous Patron filly with much the worst of the weights in the Decoration Handicap, will make to-morrow's big event a great drawing card, and if the weather man will only give Cincinnati a change from the conditions of the past two days to a bright afternoon, a crowd that will fairly rival that of Decoration Day will be on hand to cheer the winner of the big race."

"In the Kentucky Oaks Rush, with 112 pounds up, to May Hempstead's 117, easily beat Headley & Norton's filly, the track being sloppy. That was the first race, though, that May Hempstead had since she had left Memphis several weeks before, while Rush had had several good races to put her on edge. The Patron filly has undoubtedly improved a lot since the Louisville race, as she showed Tuesday. There are some changes in conditions, too, from the Kentucky Oaks that will add to the uncertainty of to-morrow's race. Its distance is three-sixteenths greater, and furthermore the two fillies will be on equal terms as regards weight, each having picked up a five-pound penalty, making the impost 122 pounds. To-morrow's race will determine which of the two is the better. It is not to be inferred that they will have the race to themselves. There are several others that will have a try for the valuable purse, and with from five to seventeen pounds less weight than the cracks must carry they may cut a considerable figure in the race. There is certainly no reason now to think that the Oaks will be anything like a walkover."

Touching one phase of racing at St. Louis, the Sporting News says:

"The starting of Billy Bruen while above the average in point of merit, resulted in more agitation for the abolition of the recall flag. Kit Chinn, who started last year, favors the retention of the flag, and in a little discussion between him and Senator O'Brien the latter declared emphatically in favor of 'no flag.' He said: 'I don't know how you starters look at it, but the great majority of the horsemen want to see the flag done away with. I have seen some good horses ruined by the long delays at the post, and it gives too much advantage to bad actors. I do not think a bad actor should be shown any favors, for every minute that sort of a horse keeps a field waiting he is injuring properly disposed animals. If an owner wants a bad-acting horse, let him have him, but there is no reason why other horses should suffer penalties waiting for one crazy one to get off in a good position."

"The wisdom of the Senator's remarks was made evident soon after, when Hindoo's Dream kept her field at the post nearly a half hour, caused one jockey to be thrown and a horse to run away, with the final result that the horses were sent away one at a time, with the result of the race, as far as first money was concerned, practically settled by the drop of the flag."

A law suit against the aristocratic Ontario Jockey Club is an outgrowth of the recent Toronto meeting. A not uncommon dislike to paying lightly incurred forfeits is at the bottom of it. The case is thus detailed in a dispatch to a Cincinnati newspaper under date of June 1. "A writ against the Ontario Jockey Club to recover $600 was issued this afternoon by the widely known Canadian horseman, John Brennan."

"At the recent Woodbine meeting Brennan won a couple of thousand dollars in purses and stakes, and when it came to a settlement the $600 was withheld and Brennan was told that he owed the New York Jockey Club that amount in unpaid forfeits on colts bought at the New York sales and entered in the Futurity and that William Hendrie, the backbone of the Ontario Club and owner of Martimas, was entitled to the money owed him. The question of collecting these forfeits was under discussion a couple of weeks before the races commenced, and John Brennan, J. W. Burrows, A. M. Orpen and others were called before the executive. They refused absolutely to pay and stated that rather than do so they would leave the track."

"Nothing further was said about the matter and the horsemen went on and raced. The club maintains that the forfeits should be paid, and the horsemen say that it is entirely unjust, that the Western Turf Congress refused to collect New York debts, and that if the O. J. C. did intend to make such demands these should have been made when the horses were entered, and not after they had raced and won. The case is causing intense interest here, as a victory for the club will mean the withdrawal of many horsemen who in former years have been prominent at Woodbine. Brennan is being backed by the shrewdest turfman in Canada, A. M. Orpen."

The remaining stakes to be decided at Gravesend will be run off in the following order:

Monday, June 5—The Kensington Hurdle Handicap, for four-year-olds, and the Patchogue Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward.

Tuesday, June 6—The Criterion Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, and the Brookdale Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward.

Thursday, June 8—The Manhasset Stakes, for two-year-olds, and the May Stakes for three-year-olds.

Saturday, June 10—The Great American Stakes, for two-year-olds, and the Broadway Stakes, for three-year-olds.

Monday, June 12—The Falcon Stakes, for three-year-olds, and the Greater New York Steeplechase Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward.

Tuesday, June 13—The Hanover Stakes, for two-year-olds, and the Gazelle Stakes, for three-year-old fillies.

Wednesday, June 14—The Myrtle Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward.

Thursday, June 15—The Tremont Stakes, for two-year-olds, and the Brooklyn Derby, for three-year-olds.

Mr. William Jennings, of Maryland, has again become the owner of the little horse Sailor King. Last fall he parted with him to John McCafferty, who campaigned him with a fair amount of success through the past winter at New Orleans. At Morris Park McCafferty offered him, with some others of his string, for sale by auction. The horse failed to elicit a bid, as he was bowed from having grabbed himself in his last race. Mr. Jennings always had a great partiality for the horse, so later on made McCafferty an offer for him. It will take several months of rest to bring him around again, so Mac was glad enough to accept the offer and sent him over to Gravesend to his old quarters.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Harry Reed wears a pair of speedy cut boots on his knees when racing and working. In his race on Tuesday one of the boots slipped and fell down to his ankle joint. This may not have interfered with him, still it left the knee unprotected and we all know what a sharp thing a blow on the inside of the knee would be—enough to make any horse cautious about extending himself.—Morning Telegraph.

John E. Madden has purchased his great favorite of last year, Plaudit, from W. C. Whitney and will send him to Kentucky at once to be placed in stud service. Admirers of the great horse will long regret the lameness that deprived Plaudit of what almost surely would have been a great career as a four-year-old.

The track was fast at Sheephead Bay Wednesday morning. John E. Madden's recent purchase, Tillo, worked a mile in 1:41, which makes the horse a dangerous candidate for the Suburban, for which he is receiving a special preparation.

Corporation Counsel Clark has vouchsafed the information that Banastar will not face the starter again until the Suburban. This he confidently expects to win, the twelve pound penalty incurred in the Brooklyn notwithstanding.

W. P. Norton has sold to John E. Madden the suckling bay colt by Albert—Hypocrite (dam of Humber, Dissembler and Admiration), by Longfellow. Price private.

Black Venus has arrived at La Belle Stud. After a six weeks' rest she will be sent back east and prepared for the fall meetings.

E. Tucker has shipped Leabey, Deering, Jolly Roger and the other members of his string from Latonia to St. Louis.

Mr. J. E. Madden has sold his yearling filly by Hanover—Peg Woffington to Mr. Sydney Paget.

HARLEM RACING.

The air at Harlem yesterday was full of gossip in regard to the O'Connell race of the day before. That the decision of the judges in declaring the race "no contest" was popular is needless to say. When the "bookies" scream the public is sure to benefit, and there was never a more lot of bookmakers in one inclosure than could be found in the Harlem ring.

Up to date no action has been taken in regard to the race and it is doubtful if any is ever taken. Owner Costello admits that his horse ran like a "dead one," but can show where he backed the sprinter to win, and furthermore makes no charges against Jockey Bloss.

The fact of the matter is that on Wednesday evening after the races, when the track was at its worst, O'Connell was worked out. He was sent along in the deep mud three-quarters in about 1:31. The old sprinter never was a work horse, and this was considered by those who handle him an extraordinary showing. Consequently the plunge the next day.

The judges had Bloss, Costello, and everyone connected with O'Connell up yesterday, and all were given a thorough hearing. There was no evidence adduced upon which any action could be taken, and O'Connell's dull race must be credited to the workout he got the day before.

After yesterday's first race the public was given a long wait before they knew what was going to happen. Ernest Wiles, a three-year-old, by Longsides—Belle of Mt. Zion, won from about the worst lot of horses that could be found at the track. He was ridden by Bloss and consequently an investigation. His owner was sent for and required to identify the horse. He produced the proper papers, then the official announcement was made.

Rome Respass may have a coming star in Jockey Knight. The boy rode Rosavannah in the fourth race and won about the most interesting contest of the meeting so far. The youngster always had Rosavannah in a good position, and when the deciding struggle came in the stretch he used excellent judgment. He had a commanding lead when straightened out and appeared to be a sure winner, but about the sixteenth post along came Nekarois with a sensational rush. Master Knight was not asleep, however, and furthermore did not lose his head. Instead of going to the whip and taking a chance of falling off, he acted like an old-timer and sat down and rode Rosavannah strongly with his hands. The consequence was he got the verdict by a short head. This was an excellent example of the uselessness of the whip.

The second race was the breaking of the ice for Tommy Griffin and Jockey Hamilton. Maharejah, backed from 24 to 1 into favoritism, easily disposed of an ordinary lot of youngsters.

Clara Meader, long overdue and with ten pounds less weight than she was advertised to carry in the official entries the night before, cleverly disposed of Prince Blazes in the third event.

The fourth was the Rosavannah race, and Locust Blossom and Marco Polo took care of the fifth and sixth races.

Winner—B. c. by Longsides—Belle of Mt. Zion.
Post 22 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; the next three were doing their best. Ernest Wiles was much the best and had to be in order to win. He acted insanely at the post and in one of his spells threw Bloss over his head. The boy hung to his bridle and prevented him from running away. The judges were in doubt as to Ernest Wiles, and before announcing the official result insisted upon having the horse identified. Barrier was impeded at the start and dropped far out of it, but came with a rush through the stretch and finished very strong. Maryland Reserve was green and acted like an overgrown Newfoundland puppy at the post. Clarence T. stopped to a walk at the end. Last Past showed some speed, but could not carry it far.
Scratched—12155 Major Woodson, 111.
Overweights—Julia K., 2½ pounds.
Ernest Wiles, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Barrier, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Maryland Reserve, show, evens.

Winner—Blk. c. by Hindoo—Miss Moore.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second hand ridden; third cleverly. Maharajah ran over his horses in the stretch. He is a slow beginner and favors a route. Mark him to beat good two-year-olds over a distance of ground. Frangible appeared to have a winning chance at the head of the stretch, but hung at the end. Mitten was sandwiched in between Maharajah and Nathan Hale on the far turn. This interfered with his chances considerably. Indian was slow to get on his stride and ran a bad race. Throw it out. Ravenswood, off flying, had a bit of speed but quit almost to a walk in the stretch.
Scratched—12111 Tommy O'Brien, 108.
Maharajah, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Frangible, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Mitten, show, 7 to 5. Indian, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. f. by Wadsworth—Annie Martin.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third driving also. Clara Meader was capably ridden. Vitaeo had her in a good position all the way and made his run at the right time. The filly was tiring at the end. As the race was run Prince Blazes was perhaps the best. He was interfered with twice during the journey, but when straightened away in the stretch came very strong. He would have won in another furlong. Long Dandy was raced to exhaustion in front. He seems to improve with every start. Uarda is not ready. Ramona suffered from bad handling. She can do better than this. The ride on Oxnard was below par.
Corrected weights—Clara Meader, 95.

Winner—Br. f. by Jim Gore—Rosavannah.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth were driving also. Rosavannah was ridden to perfection. Knight broke from the rear running and gained a good position early. He had a commanding lead when straightened away, but never got careless and kept right on about his business. It was well that he did for Nekarnis came with a rush at the end and almost got up. When Knight saw Nekarnis coming he did not lose his head and rode a neat finish with his hands. Nekarnis' race was far above his recent performances. He is probably a sulker. Pat Cleburne showed a lot of speed, but quit at the end. Mulvihill ruptured a blood vessel and was eased up in the stretch. Tophet had no speed at all. Rosavannah was run up $100 over her entered price and bought in.
Overweights—Tophet, 2 pounds.
Rosavannah, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Nekarnis, place, 8 to 1; show, 3 to 1; Pat Cleburne, show, 4 to 5. Mulvihill, place, 4 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Ch. m. by Chance—Locust Blossom.
Off at first break to a perfect start. Won in a mild drive; second and third hard at it. Locust Blossom ran a good race. She was well handled. McNickle had her in the best going all the way and saved considerable ground on the stretch turn. The filly was at her best and came away on call at the end. Dalgretti, from all indications, is a sulker. He pinned his ears back the last sixteenth and refused to try a yard when urged. Sunburst came with a tremendous rush at the end. He would have beaten Dalgretti for the place in another stride. Yours Truly ran a fair race. He is, however, not much. Hosi had more early speed than usual. Forensic led to the stretch turn and then stopped to a walk.
Locust Blossom, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Dalgretti, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Sunburst, show, 4 to 5. Forensic, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

AMERICAN RACING RULES OF 1899.

The 1899 edition of the American Racing Rules, published by Secretary E. C. Hopper of the American Turf Congress, is out and can be sent by mail to any address from this office for 25 cents. The book contains the racing rules as amended to January 1, racing Colors as registered and betting rules, and a digest in index form which is a guide to all the book's contents.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.
